Office of the Prosecuting Attorney

March 6, 2019

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MARTINSBURG, WV – Berkeley County Prosecuting Attorney Catie Wilkes Delligatti announces today that a Berkeley County petit jury has found MOLLY JO DELGADO, 30, of Falling Waters, West Virginia, returned verdict of life in prison without a recommendation of mercy for her convictions of Murder, as charged in Counts One and Two of the Indictment returned by the May, 2017 term of grand jury. This means DELGADO will not have an opportunity to be granted parole eligibility.

Berkeley County Prosecuting Attorney Catie Wilkes Delligatti and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Joseph R. Kinser prosecuted this matter on behalf of the State. Investigator George Harms of the West Virginia State Fire Marshal's Office investigated this matter and the Berkeley County Prosecutor's Office wishes to thank Investigator Harms for his dedicated work over the course of this investigation and in bringing justice for Justin Delgado and his two children, Delmer and Justin, Jr. We also thank the ATF and BAU for their assistance.

The Berkeley County Prosecutor's Offices wishes to thank the jurors for their time spent over the two-day presentation, and for their service to Berkeley County.
